former boyfriend of three years, when an unidentified female entered the apartment, packed some of her possessions inside the apartment, and left. Ms. Pasha stated that Mr. Davis became upset at Ms. Pasha for causing the unidentified female to leave. Mr. Davis and Ms. Pasha became engaged in a verbal altercation when Mr. Davis walked to the bedroom. Ms. Pasha stated that she followed him to the bedroom where Mr. Davis produced a black and grey semi-automatic handgun and pointed it in her direction. Ms. Pasha stated that when she saw the firearm she fled the apartment. Ms. Pasha provided officers with a description of Mr. Lynwood Davis.

Officers walked inside of 1821 Savannah Street, Southeast and knocked on the door of apartment #103. A male matching the description given by Ms. Pasha walked out of the apartment and closed the door behind him. Officers stopped the individual and walked him outside where Ms. Pasha was waiting. At 1832 hours, Ms. Pasha positively identified the male as Lynwood Davis, the man who had pointed the handgun at her. Lynwood Davis was placed under arrest for assault with a dangerous weapon. At the time of his arrest, Lynwood Davis was not in possession of any firearms.

After his arrest, Lynwood Davis stated to officers that he lived inside of 1821 Savannah Street, Apartment #103, Southeast, Washington, D.C. Officers asked Lynwood Davis for permission to search 1821 Savannah Street, Apartment #103, Southeast, and Mr. Davis refused. In a conversation with officers, Lynwood Davis stated that his nephew had been killed recently and he was holding on to his nephew's gun. Lynwood Davis also stated that after Ms. Pasha left he had placed a handgun into the kitchen trashcan. Based on the statements of Iman Pasha and Lynwood Davis, officers believed that an illegal firearm was being concealed inside of 1821 Savannah Street, Apartment #103, Southeast, Washington, D.C. Officers were posted outside of 1821 Savannah Street, Apartment #103, Southeast pending the application of a search warrant.

Based on the above listed facts and circumstances, your affiant believes that the evidence of the commission of a crime is inside of 1821 Savannah Street, Apartment #103, Southeast, Washington, D.C. Your affiant respectfully requests that a District of Columbia Superior Court Search Warrant be issued for the premises
